

Scena Secunda.

Drums: Flourish, and Colours.

Enter Richard, Aumerle, Carlisle, and Souldiers.

Rich. Barkloughly Castle call you this at hand?

An. Yea, my Lord: how brooks your Grace the ayre,
After your late tossing on the breaking Seas?Rich. Needs must I like it well: I weep for ioy
To stand vpon my Kingdome once againe.
Deere Earth, I doe salute thee with my hand,
Though Rebels wound thee with their Horses hooves:
As a long parted Mother with her Child,
Plays fondly with her teares, and smiles in meeting;
So weeping, smiling, greet I thee my Earth,
And doe thee fauor with my Royall hands.Feed not thy Soueraignes Foe, my gentle Earth,
Nor with thy Sweeties, comfort his rauinous fence:
But let thy Spiders, that suck vp thy Venome,
And heauie-gated Toades lye in their way,
Doing annoyance to the trecherous fecte,
Which with vsurping steps doe trample thee.
Yeeld stinging Nettles to mine Enemies;
And when they from thy Bosome pluck a Flower,
Guard it I prethee with a lurking Adder,
Whose double tongue may with a mortall touch
Throw death vpon thy Soueraignes Enemies.
Mock not my fencelesse Coniuration, Lords;
This Earth shall haue a feeling, and these Stones
Proue armed Souldiers, ere her Native King
Shall salter vnder foule Rebellious Armes.Car. Feare not my Lord, that Power that made you King
Hath power to keepe you King, in spite of all.Aum. He meanes, my Lord, that we are too remisse,
Whilest Bullingbrooke through our securitie,
Growes strong and great, in substance and in friends.Rich. Discomfortable Cousin, knowest thou not,
That when the searching Eye of Heauen is hid
Behind the Globe, that lights the lower World,
Then Theeues and Robbers raunge abroad vncene,
In Murthers and in Out-rage bloody here:But when from vnder this Terrestrial Ball
He fires the proud tops of the Easterne Pines,
And darts his Lightning through eu'ry guiltie hole,
Then Murthers, Treasons, and detested sinnes(The Cloake of Night being pluckt from off their backs)
Stand bare and naked, trembling at themselves.So when this Theefe, this Traytor Bullingbrooke,
Who all this while hath reuell'd in the Night,Shall see vs rising in our Throne; the East,
His Treasons will sit blushing in his face,
Not able to endure the sight of Day;But selfe-affrighted, tremble at his sinne.
Not all the Water in the rough rude Sea
Can wash the Barme from an anyntie King;The breath of worldly men cannot depose
The Deputie elected by the Lord:For euery man that Bullingbrooke hath prest,
To lift shrewd Steele against our Golden Crowne,

Heauen for his Richard hath in heauenly pay

A glorious Angell: then if Angels fight,
Weake men must fall, for Heauen still guards the right.
Enter Salisbury.

Welcome my Lord, how farre off lyes your Power?

Salib. Nor neere, nor farther off, my gracious Lord,
Then this weake arme; discomfort guides my tongue,
And bids me speake of nothing but despaire:One day too late, I feare (my Noble Lord)
Hath clouded all thy happie dayes on Earth:Oh call backe Yesterday, bid Time returne,
And thou shalt haue twelue thousand fighting men:
To day, to day, ynhappy day too lateOrthrowes thy Ioyes, Friends, Fortune, and thy State;
For all the Welchmen hearing thou wert dead,
Are gone to Bullingbrooke; dispers'd, and fled.Aum. Comfort my Liege, why looks your Grace so pale?Rich. But now the blood of twentie thousand men
Did triumph in my face, and they are fled,
And till so much blood thither come againe,Haue I not reason to looke pale, and dead?
All Soules that will be safe, flye from my side,
For Time hath set a blot vpon my pride.

Aum. Comfort my Liege, remember who you are.

Rich. I had forgot my selfe. Am I not King?

Awake thou sluggard Maiestie, thou sleepest:
Is not the Kings Name fortie thousand Names?Arme, arme my Name: a punie subiect strikes
At thy great glory. Look not to the ground,
Ye Fauorites of a King: are wee not high?High be our thoughts: I know my Vnckle Torke
Hath Power enough to serue our turne,
But who comes here?Enter Scroope.
Scroope. More health and happinesse beide my Liege,
Then can my care-tun'd tongue deliuer him.Rich. Mine care is open, and my heart prepar'd:
The worst is worldly losse, thou canst vnfold:
Say, Is my Kingdome lost? why 'twas my Care:And what losse is it to be rid of Care?
Striues Bullingbrooke to be as Great as wee?Greater he shall not be: If hee serue God,
Wee'l serue him too, and be his Fellow so.Reuolt our Subiects? That we cannot mend,
They breake their Faith to God, as well as vs:Cry Woe, Destruction, Ruine, Losse, Decay,
The worst is Death, and Death will haue his day.Scroope. Glad am I, that your Highnesse is so arm'd
To beare the tidings of Calamitie.Like an vnseasonable stormie day,
Which make the Silver Riuer drowne their Shores,
As if the World were all dissolud to teares:So high, above his Limits, swells the Rage
Of Bullingbrooke, couering your fearefull Land
With hard bright Steele, and hearts harder then Steele:White Beares haue arm'd their rhin and hairelesse Scalps
Against thy Maiestie, and Boyes with Womens Voyces,
Striue to speake bigge, and clap their female joints.In stiffe vnwieldie Armes: against thy Crowne
Thy very Bead-men learne to bend their Bowes
Of double fatall Eugh: against thy StateYea Distaffe: Women manage rustie Bills:
Against thy Seat both young and old rebell,
And all goes worse then I haue power to tell.Rich. Too well, too well thou tell'st a Tale so ill.
Where is the Earle of Wiltshire? where is Bagot?

What is become of Bushie? where is Greene?

That

That they haue let the dangerous Enemie
Measure our Confinnes with such peacefull steps?If we preuaile, their heads shall pay for it.
I warrant they haue made peace with Bullingbrooke.Scroope. Peace haue they made with him indeede (my Lord.)Rich. Oh Villains, Vipers, damn'd without redemption,
Dogges, easily woo'd to fawne on any man,
Snakes in my heart blood warm'd, that sting my heart,Three Iudas'es, each one thrice worse then Iudas,
Would they make peace? terrible Hell make warre
Vpon their spotted Soules for this Offence.Scroope. Sweet Loue (I see) changing his propertie,
Turnes to the sowrest, and most deadly hate:
Again vncurse their Soules; their peace is madeWith Heads, and not with Hands: those whom you curse
Haue felt the worst of Deaths destroying hand,
And lye full low, graue'd in the hollow ground.Aum. Is Bushie, Greene, and the Earle of Wiltshire dead?

Scroope. Yea, all of them at Bristow lost their heads.

Aum. Where is the Duke my Father with his Power?

Rich. No matter where; of comfort no man speake:
Lee's talke of Graues, of Wormes, and Epitaphs,
Make Dust our Paper, and with Raynie eyesWrite Sorrow on the Bosome of the Earth.
Lee's chuse Executors, and talke of Wills:
And yet not so; for what can we bequeath,Saue our deposted bodies to the ground?
Our Lands, our Liues, and all are Bullingbrookes,
And nothing can we call our owne, but Death,And that small Modell of the barren Earth,
Which serues as Paffe, and Couer to our Bones:
For Heauens sake let vs sit vpon the ground,And tell sad stories of the death of Kings:
How some haue been depos'd, some slaine in warre,
Some haunted by the Ghosts they haue depos'd,Some poyson'd by their Wiues, some sleeping kill'd,
All murder'd. For within the hollow Crowne
That rounds the mortall Temples of a King,Keepes Death his Court, and there the Antique sits
Scoffing his State, and grinning at his Pompe,
Allowing him a breath, a little Scene,To Monarchize, be fear'd, and kill with lookes,
Infusing him with selfe and vaine conceit,
As if this Flesh, which walls about our Life,Were Brasse impregnable: and humor'd thus,
Comes at the last, and with a little Pinne
Bores through his Castle Walls, and farwell King.Couer your heads, and mock not flesh and blood
With solemne Reuerence: throw away Respect,
Tradition, Forme, and Ceremonious dutie,For you haue but mistooke me all this while:
I liue with Bread like you, feeble Wanr,
Taste Griefe, need Friends: subiected thus,

How can you say to me, I am a King?

Carl. My Lord, wife men ne're waile their present woes,
But presently preuent the wayes to waile:To feare the Foe, since feare oppresth strength,
Giues in your weaknesse, strength vnto your Foe;
Feare, and be slaine, no worse can come to fight,And fight and die, is death destroying death,
Where feare, dying, payes death seruile breath.Aum. My Father hath a Power, enquire of him,
And learne to make a Body of a Limbe.

Rich. Thou chid'st me well: proud Bullingbrooke I come

To change Blowes with thee, for our day of Doome:
This ague fit of feare is ouer-blowne,
An easie taske it is to winne our owne.Say Scroope, where lyes our Vnckle with his Power?
Speake sweetly man, although thy lookes be sowre.Scroope. Men iudge by the complexion of the Skie
The state and inclination of the day;So may you by my dull and heauie Eye:
My Tongue hath but a heauier Tale to say:
I play the Torturer, by small and smallTo lengthen out the worst, that must be spoken.
Your Vnckle Torke is ioynd with Bullingbrooke,
And all your Northerne Castles yeelded vp,And all your Southerne Gentlemen in Armes
Vpon his Faction.Rich. Thou hast said enough.
Bestrew thee Cousin, which didst lead me forth
Of that sweet way I was in, to despaire:What say you now? What comfort haue we now?
By Heauen Ile hate him eu'rlastingly,
That bids me be of comfort any more.Goe to Flint Castle, there Ile pine away,
A King, Woes slaue, shall Kingly Woe obey:
That Power I haue, discharge, and let'em goeTo eare the Land, that hath some hope to grow,
For I haue none. Let no man speake againe
To alter this, for counsaile is but vaine.Aum. My Liege, one word.
Rich. He does me double wrong,
That wounds me with the flatteries of his tongue.Discharge my followers: let them hence away,
From Richards Night, to Bullingbrookes faire Day.

Exeunt.

Scena Tertia.

Enter with Drum and Colours, Bullingbrooke,
Torke, Northumberland, Attendants.Bull. So that by this intelligence we learne
The Welchmen are dispers'd, and Salisbury
Is gone to meet the King, who lately landedWith some few priuate friends, vpon this Coast.
North. The newes is very faire and good, my Lord,
Richard, not farre from hence, hath hid his head.Torke. It would befeeme the Lord Northumberland,
To say King Richard: alack the heauie day,
When such a sacred King should hide his head.North. Your Grace mistakes: onely to be brieft,
Left I his Title out.Torke. The time hath beene,
Would you haue beene so brieft with him, he would
Haue beene so brieft with you, to shorten you,For taking so the Head, your whole heads length.
Bull. Mistake not (Vnckle) farther then you should.
Torke. Take not (good Cousin) farther then you should.Least you mistake the Heauens are ore your head.
Bull. I know it (Vnckle) and oppose not my selfe
Against their will. But who comes here?Enter Percie.
Welcome Harry: what, will not this Castle yeeld?
Per. The Castle royally is mann'd, my Lord,
Against thy entrance.

Bull. Roy-
